Markerboard and markers

We're going to play a quick game of "baseball" to see what you remember about Jesus' titles and adjectives that begin with Letters A-F.

Play baseball with "Jesus is...A through Z Review Questions," Letters A-F. Either have the entire class play as one team, trying to beat the score of 20 runs, or divide them into two teams. An incorrect answer equals an out. After three outs, it's the other team's turn to "bat." Make sure each team gets an equal number of "at bats." Have another teacher keep track of outs and points on the markerboard. Keep the game moving as quickly as possible. (Read over the A-F questions before class and highlight the questions you want to use.)

(Assign more than one sheet to a pair if there are less than 16 kids or have more than two students on a team if there are more than 16 kids.) Have teams work together to memorize all the titles and adjectives on their assigned sheet(s.)

Have students move to the tables during this time. They may color their booklets and eat a snack while they work on memorizing their assigned page. Make sure they write their names on their booklets.

After about 10 minutes, have the kids move back to the chairs in the center of the room. Call teams up front (in alphabetical order, according to the letter(s) they were assigned) and have them recite their adjectives and titles to the class. Have the class applaud each team. After each team is seated, quickly ask the class some questions from the "Jesus is...A through Z Review Questions" regarding the adjectives/titles the team just recited (go through the questions before class and pick out 3-4 for each letter).
