Instructions for Students

- Memorize one verse (including the reference) and quote to a teacher. The teacher will initial and date the box by the verse.
- When the first column is completed, proceed to the next column, quoting two verses at a time.
- Continue to 3, 4, and then 5 verses at time. Then you are ready to test on all the verses.
- You will receive a prize when you quote all six verses with a score of 80% or better.

Testing Directions for Teachers:

Beginning at the top, read the Scripture reference to the student. Score as follows: Three points for perfectly quoted verse (student may correct mistakes if he catches them himself). Two points for slight mistakes or if help is needed starting the verse. One point if the verse is roughly quoted. Continue down the page in order. Divide student's total points by points possible for percentage. Eighty percent required to pass.
