

The Parable of the Sower

As told by Jesus in Mark 4

"...there
went out a sower to
sow:"

“And it came to pass, as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and the fowls of the air came and devoured it up.”

"And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth; and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth: But when the sun was up, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away."

"And some fell among thorns, and
the thorns
grew up, and
choked it,
and it
yielded no
fruit."

“And other
fell on good
ground, and
did yield
fruit that
sprang up
and increased; and brought forth, some thirty, and
some sixty,
and some an
hundred.”

"The sower soweth the word."

"And these are they by the way side,
where the word is sown;
but when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately,
and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts."

"And these are they likewise which are sown on stony ground;
who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness;
And have no root in themselves,
and so endure but for a time:
afterward, when affliction or persecution ariseth
for the word's sake, immediately they are offended."

Mark 4:16-17

“And these are they which are sown among thorns;
such as hear the word,
And the cares of this world,
and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in,
choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful.”

"And these are they which are sown on good ground;
such as hear the word,
and receive it,
and bring forth fruit,
some thirtyfold,
some sixty,
and some an hundred. "
